

Redefining the future of Real Estate in Africa

21st Annual Conference

African Real Estate Society (AfRES) Conference 2022

Accra, Ghana

Dear Colleagues,

We are pleased to announce the Call for Papers and abstract submission for the African Real Estate Society (AfRES) 2022 Conference. The conference will take place from 6th – 9th September 2022 in Accra Ghana.

We invite contributions for a wide range of topics pertinent to Real Estate and the Global South, including and not limited to:

- Affordable Housing/ Social Housing
- Sustainable Real Estate/ Smart Housing/ Green Building Initiatives
- Sustainable Financing/ Mortgage
- Real Estate Investment Trusts (REITs)/ PropTech
- Macroeconomic policy and Housing Developments
- Real Estate Valuation
- Land Administration and management
- CREM/ Property & Facility Management
- Real estate market research
- Research priorities for real estate education/ curricula

If you are interested in contributing to the conference with an oral presentation, you are welcome to submit your abstract via the online link: <https://forms.gle/hTEjxcSZ4aX7vj4h9>

Key Dates*

Abstract submission (refereed papers) before 30th May 2022

Abstract submission (non-refereed papers) before 27th June 2022

For more information visit the conference website <https://afres.org> and contact Co-Chairs on ekgavu1.cap@knust.edu.gh and emmanuel.martey@vra.com

Please save the date and forward this information to any colleagues and students that you think might be interested.

Kind regards,
AfRES 2022 Co-Chairs