

ARES 2022, April 6-9 Bonita Springs, FL Accepting Submissions

Dear Colleagues,

The American Real Estate Society 2022 conference, April 6-9, 2022 at the Hyatt Regency Coconut Point, Bonita Springs, FL is now accepting submissions.

Connect. Collaborate. Contribute. Hopefully, this conference will provide us opportunities to connect in person with our colleagues, to collaborate with each other and contribute socially and academically to our collective community. For many of us, ARES is our professional family and a reunion is long overdue.

Beyond presenting your research, consider organizing a panel as well as participating as a discussant and providing critical feedback to other researchers. The variety of opportunities you can engage can help expand your own network and meet other colleagues. We look forward to hearing how you want to participate at the meeting.

Please remember that the submission deadline is November 15th, 2021. If you have any questions, suggestions or concerns please contact us at conference@aresnet.org
